

UMWA Rally

Henderson, KY.

All Union Activists: On Tuesday, June 4th the UMWA will hold its first major anti-Peabody-Patriot-Arch-Coal Rally in Kentucky! Many of you have shown your support for the UMWA in the fight for Fairness at Patriot by traveling to rallies and events in St. Louis, MO and Charleston, WV where you were joined by trade unionists from many other states. Now its Kentucky's turn to show Peabody and Patriot that the UMWA and all of the retirees and families have the full support and solidarity of the Kentucky trade union movement.

You are asked to show your support for Fairness at Patriot on Tuesday, June 4th at the Henderson County Courthouse, 1st and Main Streets, Henderson, KY at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time) by coming to the rally and joining fellow trade unionists to send a strong message that the trade union movement stands with union miners, retirees and their families!

Unions in the Henderson and Owensboro area are especially encouraged to have a strong presence. Bring your union banners. Wear your union shirts. Show your solidarity and make Kentucky proud!
